Each item will count as a certain number of points (i.e. – 1 package of cookies = 3pts). All other food items not listed will count as 1 point and all other health and beauty supplies not listed will count as 2 points. We request that you do not donate anything in glass containers or any ramen soup products. We understand that some areas have more people so in order to equalize everything we will divide each areas point total by the number of people in that area. We look forward to a successful and productive event and we would like to thank you all in advance for your generosity.
